
PARTICIPANT WORKBOOK

The AI Workshop

Prompt Guide & Workbook

Getting great results from ChatGPT or Claude

Presented by

Dr. Dewayne A. Dixon, PhD

Dewayne A Dixon LLC

What's Inside

A hands-on guide for using ChatGPT and Claude

- Section 1 · The Prompt Guide — R·C·A·T·C framework
- Practice · Your Turn — Write a Prompt
- Section 2 · Prompt Tune-Up Scorecard
- Section 3 · Example Prompts (copy-friendly cards)
- Section 4 · Workflow Template — notes to calendar
- Section 5 · Responsible-AI Checklist
- Closing · Keep Going

Treat AI like a brilliant, eager intern — the better you brief it, the better it works.

SECTION 1

The Prompt Guide

A simple framework you can use every time you open ChatGPT or Claude.

One Idea to Remember

Treat AI like a brilliant, eager intern. It has read almost everything, but it cannot read your mind.

The better you brief it — who it is, what you need, who will read it, the tone, and the limits — the better it works.

The R · C · A · T · C Framework

Use these five lenses to brief the model. Stack them in a single prompt.

	Lens	What it means	Morehouse-flavored example
R	Role	Tell the AI who it is in this task.	"You are a Morehouse alumni-relations writer with a warm, scholarly voice."
C	Context	Share the situation, background, and any key facts.	"We are inviting Morehouse alumni from the classes of 1995-2010 to a Founder's Day reception in Atlanta."
A	Audience	Describe who will read or hear the result.	"The reader is a busy alumnus who values tradition, community, and the legacy of the

			House."
T	Tone	Name the feeling the writing should carry.	"Tone: dignified, encouraging, slightly celebratory — like a letter from a respected mentor."
C	Constraints	Set the limits — length, format, must-include or must-avoid.	"Under 180 words, two short paragraphs, end with a clear RSVP line. No clichés like 'circle back.'"
	Iterate	Don't accept the first draft. Push the model: "Make it shorter." "Make it warmer." "Give me 3 versions."

Stack the five lenses in one paragraph, then ask for a draft. If you don't like it, iterate.

Your Turn — Write a Prompt

Pick a real task you need to do this week. Fill the five lenses, then assemble your draft below.

Role

Context

Audience

Tone

Constraints

Your draft prompt

Tip

Once you have a draft, paste it into ChatGPT or Claude. Read the response carefully, then iterate: 'Make it shorter,' 'Make it warmer,' or 'Give me three versions to compare.'

Prompt Tune-Up Scorecard

Name

Date _____

Attempt #1	Attempt #2
Your prompt (one sentence) Did your prompt include... ☐ Role ☐ Context ☐ Audience ☐ Tone ☐ Constraints Result rating (circle one) ○ 1 ○ 2 ○ 3 ○ 4 ○ 5 What I'll change next time	Your prompt (one sentence) Did your prompt include... ☐ Role ☐ Context ☐ Audience ☐ Tone ☐ Constraints Result rating (circle one) ○ 1 ○ 2 ○ 3 ○ 4 ○ 5 What I'll change next time

Winner: ☐ Attempt #1 ☐ Attempt #2

One thing I will do differently next time:

SECTION 3

Example Prompts

Copy-friendly cards. Replace every [PLACEHOLDER] before you paste into ChatGPT or Claude.

Alumni Email / Invitation You are a warm, professional alumni-relations writer. Draft an invitation email to [ALUMNI GROUP] for [EVENT NAME] on [DATE] at [LOCATION]. Tone: dignified and welcoming. Keep it under 180 words. End with a clear RSVP line and a deadline of [RSVP DATE].	Save-the-Date Write a short save-the-date for [EVENT NAME] on [DATE] in [CITY]. Audience: [AUDIENCE]. Tone: celebratory but elegant. 60 words or fewer. Include the date, city, and a single sentence on why they won't want to miss it. No registration link yet.
Event Description Draft a 120-word event description for [EVENT NAME] for the website. Include: the purpose, who it's for ([AUDIENCE]), what attendees will experience, and one memorable detail. Tone: confident, inviting. Avoid clichés. End with the date, time, and city.	Follow-up Email (post-meeting) You are my executive assistant. Write a follow-up email to [RECIPIENT] after our meeting on [DATE] about [TOPIC]. Recap the three decisions we made, list each action item with owner and due date, and propose [NEXT STEP]. Tone: warm and businesslike. Under 200 words.
Thank-You / Stewardship Note Draft a sincere thank-you note from [SENDER] to [DONOR / VOLUNTEER NAME] for [GIFT OR CONTRIBUTION]. Mention the specific impact: [IMPACT]. Tone: heartfelt, not flowery. Around 120 words. Close with an invitation to stay connected.	Post-Event Recap Write a recap for [EVENT NAME] held on [DATE]. Audience: attendees and the wider community. Include: a one-line headline, three highlights, one quote we could attribute to [SPEAKER], a thank-you to [PARTNERS], and a forward-looking close. About 220 words. Tone: proud and gracious.
Social Media Captions Write 3 caption options for a post about [TOPIC] on [PLATFORM: LinkedIn / Instagram / Facebook]. Audience: [AUDIENCE]. Tone: [TONE]. Each under 60 words. Include 2-4 relevant hashtags. Vary the angle: one informative, one inspirational, one conversational.	Turn Messy Notes into a Message Here are my raw notes from [MEETING / CALL] on [DATE]: [PASTE NOTES]. Turn them into a clean, well-organized message to [RECIPIENT] that captures the key points, decisions, and next steps. Use short paragraphs and a friendly, professional tone. Under 200 words.

Fix the Tone Here is a draft I wrote: [PASTE DRAFT]. Keep the meaning and the structure but adjust the tone to be [DESIRED TONE — e.g., warmer, more confident, more concise]. Do not add new facts. Return the revised version only.	Summarize a Thread Below is an email thread / set of messages: [PASTE THREAD]. Summarize it in three parts: (1) the situation in one sentence, (2) the key points or decisions as a short bulleted list, (3) the open questions or next steps. Neutral tone. Under 150 words.

Prompt Tips

- Replace every bracketed [PLACEHOLDER] with the real details before you send.
- One clear ask per prompt — if you have two tasks, send two prompts.
- Iterate: ask for shorter, warmer, sharper, or three versions to compare.
- Always read the result carefully before you send anything externally — you are responsible for what you put your name on.

SECTION 4

Workflow Template — From Notes to Calendar

A repeatable four-step flow you can run after any meeting, call, or event.

STEP 1 Summarize the notes

Prompt to use:

“Here are my raw notes from [MEETING/EVENT] on [DATE]: [PASTE NOTES]. Summarize them in three parts: (1) the situation in one sentence, (2) the three or four most important points as a short bulleted list, (3) any open questions. Neutral, professional tone. Under 150 words.”

STEP 2 Pull action items

Prompt: “From the same notes, extract every action item as a table with three columns: Task, Owner, Due Date. If a due date is not stated, suggest a reasonable one.”

Task	Owner	Due

STEP 3 Draft follow-up emails

Prompt: “For each action item with an external recipient, draft a short follow-up email. Include a clear subject line. Tone: warm and businesslike. Keep each under 150 words. Use [PLACEHOLDERS] for names and details.”

Subject: Following up on [TOPIC] — next steps

Hi [NAME],

Thanks again for [MEETING/CONVERSATION] on [DATE]. As promised, I'm following up on [TOPIC]. The next step on my side is [ACTION], which I'll have to you by [DATE]. On your side, we agreed you would [THEIR ACTION] by [DATE].

Let me know if anything has shifted. Looking forward to it.

Warmly,
[YOUR NAME]

STEP 4 Build the calendar

Prompt: "Turn the action items into a simple timeline. List each item with a target week. Note any dependencies. If specific dates aren't given, suggest reasonable timing based on the goal of [GOAL/EVENT DATE]."

Week / Date	Milestone or Task	Depends on

SECTION 5

Responsible-AI Checklist

Use these lists every time. ChatGPT and Claude are powerful tools — keep a human in charge.

✗ Never enter

Do not paste any of these into ChatGPT or Claude:

- ✗ Student records (names, grades, IEPs, transcripts)
- ✗ Donor financial information or giving history tied to names
- ✗ Confidential personnel or HR information
- ✗ Social Security, ID, account, or password numbers
- ✗ Anything covered by a non-disclosure or confidentiality agreement
- ✗ Health, legal, or counseling details tied to a person

✓ Always do

Build these habits every time you use ChatGPT or Claude:

- ✓ Remove names and identifiers before pasting examples
- ✓ Draft — don't decide. The AI helps you think, not approve
- ✓ Review every output for accuracy, tone, and bias
- ✓ Double-check any fact, name, date, number, or quote
- ✓ Keep a human in charge of the final word
- ✓ Disclose AI assistance when policy or audience expects it

My Commitment

I will use ChatGPT and Claude responsibly. I will protect the privacy of the people I serve, review every result before I send it, and keep a human in charge of every decision.

Signature _____ Date _____

CLOSING

Keep Going

*“Pick one workflow to adopt this month —
start with the task you do most often.”*

What to do next

1. Choose one task you do every week — the one that drains your time most.
2. Use the R·C·A·T·C framework to brief ChatGPT or Claude for that task.
3. Run it through the Tune-Up Scorecard. Iterate until it sounds like you.
4. Save your favorite prompt where you can reuse it. That's your new shortcut.

STAY IN TOUCH

Dr. Dewayne A. Dixon, PhD

Dewayne A Dixon LLC

drdixonsailab@gmail.com

Use this workbook. Mark it up. Make it yours.